

It is my pleasure to present the Indigenous Land Acknowledgement Statement

We acknowledge this traditional territory is home to many indigenous people from across Turtle Island. Long before today, the aboriginal people were the stewards of the land. We are grateful for the opportunity to be here, and we thank all the generations of people who have taken care of this land for many generations. To acknowledge this is to recognize the long history and significance of these peoples whose practices and spiritualities were tied to the land.
