

Gardens Maintained by Your Society

Diggin' in the Dirt

Our Society makes an exceptional contribution to civic beautification through the maintenance of many gardens around Fergus. In their purple Society t-shirts, volunteers known as the “Diggin’ in the Dirt” group gather from spring to fall every Tuesday morning at 8 a.m. at Templin Gardens and then fan out across town.

If you are interested in joining, please contact Bev Dawson or Linda Murray.

Garden Locations

- Templin Gardens
- Terry Fox Park
- Weigh Scale Building
- Post Office – Butterfly garden and raised bed
- Fergusson Garden - St. Andrew and St. David
- Entrance sign – South end
- Bridge and Union Streets – dentist bed and island
- Fergus Branch Library
- Centre Wellington Hydro Office
- Chamber of Commerce
- Sportsplex Garden – lower portion
- Market Garden - Queen and Bridge
- BT Corner
- Victoria Park Seniors’ Centre
- Belsyde Cemetery - 3 Beds
- Menzies Lane
- Cenotaph Park
- Fergus Legion
- River Bank
- River Walk garden beds
- New To You (Op Shop)
- Craighead

