

2021 September Mini Show Schedule

DIVISION I: Preserves

SECTION A: Jellies, Jams & Marmalades

Class 1. Jam, any fruit/vegetable or combination

Class 2. Compote, any fruit or combination

Class 3. Jelly, any fruit or combination

SECTION B: Pickles, Relish/Chow-Chow & Salsa

Class 4. Pickles, any form or flavour

Class 5. Relish/Chow-Chow – any flavour

Class 6. Salsa

Rules for GHS Preserve Show

- A. Each entry must be bottled in the current or previous year, shown in a mason jar
- B. Jars must have the ring loosened (do not open the seal; this will be opened by the judge).
- C. Entries will be judged on the condition of the fruit or vegetable, general appearance, consistency (crunchy, tough, or soft), texture (too thick or thin), flavour and labelling.
- D. Jars must be labelled stating the year of bottling and the name of the preserve. Entries not labelled correctly will be disqualified.

DIVISION II: Horticulture - Cut Flowers

Class 7. 1 Stem of an annual flower

Class 8. 1 Stem of a perennial flower

Class 9. 1 Stem of any other flower (from tuber or bulb) e.g. Dahlia, Canna

DIVISION III: Decorative – “Seasonal Beauty”

Class 10. Fall Splendour – A Parallel Design no more than 30 inches in height or width, featuring White Birch – stem or bark and flowers

Class 11. Fall Treasure – A Fairy Dish Garden in a container under 14” diameter with moss, bark, toadstools and miniature accessories to complement

Class 12. Welcoming Wreath – A Halloween themed wreath for a door decoration using natural vine material as the base and accompanied with a message note (Witch’s TO DO LIST)

Rules for GHS Flower Shows

- A. Judging will follow Ontario Judging and Exhibiting Standards (OJES/2019) for all shows.
- B. Exhibitors must be a member of the GHS
- C. A member may enter one entry in each class.
- D. All exhibits must be grown by the exhibitor except in the decorative classes where materials may be obtained from any source.
- E. An entry will not necessarily be awarded a prize if judged below standard.
- F. The decision of the judge is final. Any inquiries should be directed to the Show Chair.