

Margaret Anna Leggatt

NEW Gardening during Climate Change - Lower your Garden's Carbon Footprint

Travels abroad - wildflowers in multiple places - Travels of a mad gardener- (can be a guessing game - Where is Anna Now?) Around the World in 40 plants, Wildflowers and Wildlife from China, Western Australia, New Zealand, South Africa, Sierra Leone, Iran, Greece, Dolomites, Spain, UK, Argentina, Costa Rica,, Mexico, Rocky Mountains, Ontario, Canadian Arctic. Also visits featuring culture, history and/or wildlife to above + Bering Sea, Brazil, Namibia, Myanmar, Cambodia, Vietnam, SE Asia, Antarctic. California Superboom
Favourite plants from around the world - can we grow them?

Garden Blues - blue flowers for different places recreated The Poppy Family - common to the unusual New

Japanese gardens - how we can add elements to our gardens
Looking at gardens and learning from what you see,

Clematis, Climbers, vertical gardening - part or all
Environmental gardening – wildflowers, gardening for birds, wildlife, etc,
Mountains, Monarchs, Mexico.
Bulbs, also No sex please, we're potatoes or South African bulbs
Colour in the Garden
Cut it Out - How to prune and what Anna has achieved
Rock gardening, - troughs, screes, sand beds - part or all
Raised Beds, and/or Planters, Hanging baskets
Shade gardens,
Ground covers,
Getting rid of your Lawn

Beyond Green: year round colour and form from shrubs and Small trees Growing Hedges - from traditional to unusual recreated

Unusual vegetables,
Water gardening

Identifying weeds, - Summer and fall only recreated

Beautiful plants that spread,- Big Bad and Beautiful
Growing Shakespeare,
Now I've got it, where do I put it?
47 years in one Bed,

Evening Garden or Scented garden recreated

Seed starting (Jan to May)
Seed collecting (Spring to Fall)
The Label said "Small"
Plus others. Requests considered.