Name: First J Kyle

Last Macrae

Biography:

Kyle was born in New York City and educated all across Canada. Kyle was formally introduced to the importance and benefits of plants while an undergrad at Quest University Canada (2016) in Squamish, BC. He received his technical training for a Red Seal in Landscape Horticulture from Olds College (2019) and completed his apprenticeship (2020) in Calgary, Alberta. Kyle has lots of experience with drought resistance, Zone 3 plants, and natural stone projects. He is passionate about creating and promoting more habitat from native birds, bees, and butterflies. He is currently pursuing a career as a landscape designer and hopes to one day start a nursery for native plants.

Please provide a brief description of your qualifications, skills and/or experience
